Chaplain Thoughts

Thriving in God's Peace

"In peace I will both lie down and sleep; for you alone, O Lord, make me dwell in safety" Psalm 4:8.

Peace does not come easily in this life and sleep, well, if we don't have peace, we do not have sleep. Our verse assures us that we will BOTH lie down and sleep when we dwell in the safety of the Lord.

Psalm 4 is an expression of David's confidence and trust in the Lord. David is running for his life while being pursued by his conniving and manipulative son Absalom (2 Samuel 15)! I would imagine David was afraid and yet, because of his close relationship with the Lord, David let go of his fear and focused on the Lord. David begins by asking for God's grace (vs. 1) and urging his enemies to stop rebelling against God (vs. 2). David is assured that, as a faithful servant, God hears when he calls to him (vs.3). Then David says, 'do not sin' think about what you are doing, search your heart, offer righteous sacrifices (this means do not repay evil for evil, rather offer a blessing) and trust in the Lord (a key word to peace and safety). David seeks God's face shining in favor (vs.6) causing David's heart to be filled with joy, like the joy of an abundant harvest of grain and new wine!

At last, with David's strong trust in the Lord, he was able to both lie down and sleep, not toss and turn, dwelling in the safety of the Lord. What a blessing that must have been for David.

I encourage you to read Psalm 4 once a day, it is only eight verses, and notice if your confidence and trust in the Lord bring you peace. May it deepen and enrich your relationship with him. Write down what changes come into your life. I believe you will be pleasantly surprised.

So tonight, when you lay your head down, remember, God is taking care of everything. Trust him. Be confident in him, for you are dwelling in the safety of his presence.

Peace,

Chaplain Val

Ham And Cheese Sliders

- 12 slider buns (Hawaiian rolls are recommended)
- 12 slices deli ham
- 8 slices Swiss cheese
- 2 tbsp. mayonnaise
- 1 Tbsp. Dijon mustard
- ½ cup melted butter
- ½ tbsp. onion powder
- ½ tsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tbsp. poppy seeds

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Cut sliders in half and place the bottoms in a greased casserole dish. Mix together mayo and Dijon mustard then spread over the bottom buns. Place the ham on the slider buns, overlapping the pieces. Place the Swiss cheese on the ham, and then place the tops of the slider buns. In a small bowl, combine melted butter, onion powder, Worcestershire sauce, and poppy seeds. Pour the butter mixture over the sliders and cover the casserole dish with aluminum foil. Bake for 10 minutes, then remove the foil and continue baking for 10 more minutes, or until the cheese melts. Remove from oven. Use a sharp knife to cut the sliders apart. Serve warm and enjoy!
